Course Features

Main Menu

Move through hours of in-depth content - quickly and easily due to the efficient and organized structure

PowerPoint

Utilizing PowerPoint presentations enhances the delivery by displaying a variety of visual information to the user. This type of representation allows the user to better interpret the material through charts, definitions, graphs, and more...

Controls

Move forward, back, and repeat entire topics or just a section. A progress bar illuminates as you advance through exercises.

Full Motion Video

All courses feature full-motion videos of instructors teaching the information as if they are speaking directly to you. Our unique delivery simulates a one-on-one classroom environment creating a more personal lesson and learning experience.

Study Guides

Printable study guides for the entire course are available. This allows all material to be viewed, reviewed, and printed for viewing at a later date.

Review Exercises

Each section has a review quiz to aid in the learning process by validating the comprehension of the material covered before moving on to a new section.

Resume

All courses are resumed to where you left off last session allowing you to learn when it is convenient for you without the hassle of remembering where you where.

Live Demonstrations

Demonstrations are a way for the instructor to show and tell the user how to perform a task by actually doing it on screen in front of them. In this format it gives the user the power to see things done by a professional in the intended environment as many times as they would like.

Summary

The distance learning kit is a self-paced course, i.e. it does not have a set time frame for its completion, however, the recommended duration is 1 month after which one can give the online examination leading to C3E Certification.

The kit comprises of a DVD, which contains video recordings of training, screen casts, tools, software, e-books and sample paper as explained above. Along with the DVD, a hard copy of the book is sent.
